

Cotswold Manor

A Grade II listed late 17th century Manor house

Views across beautiful gardens and 100 acres creating a private location

Traditional Cotswold stone on the outside

Blend of modern and traditional country house inside

Patterned wallpaper used in many of the bedrooms and bathrooms

Many original features such as baths and basins

Other original features remain and outside also include a loggia, old stone barns, stables and sheds

By car, 78 miles from central London

By train, nearest station at Oxford, 1hr from London

Marylebone or London Paddington